

There was no January regular meeting due to a tie vote for Board President during the Organizational Meeting that had to take place first. After the tie vote, everything else was suspended.